Hi Jeffrey!

Please refer to your letter of February 5, 2009

I am the Head of the Consular Section at the Embassy of Ghana in Washington. Hope you are doing fine.

To be direct with you, YOU ARE BEING SCAMMED by the 'person' you think you are dealing with and the earlier you stop maintaining contact with her the better.

For your information, airlines or immigration/customs officials do not ask passengers to declare any money before they travel.

If you are able to obtain the passport particulars, we can check it out for you. You may wish to call me on 202-686-4509 for further explanation but whatever you do, do not send any money to her.

Hope to hear from you

J. Annim
(Head of Consular)
